

Owl city – Vanilla Twilight Lyric analysis

By Agnes

The stars lean down to kiss you
And I lie awake and miss you
Pour me a heavy dose of atmosphere

The first line uses romantic conations and smooth rhythm. The lyrics “pour me a heavy dose of atmosphere” suggests the song writer wants meaning and presence.

'Cause I'll doze off safe and soundly
But I'll miss your arms around me
I'd send a postcard to you, dear
'Cause I wish you were here

Catchy chorus with use of connections through the idea of a postcard sent when you are on holiday in a happy place but wishing someone else “a loved one” was sharing the experience with them.

I'll watch the night turn light-blue
But it's not the same without you
Because it takes two to whisper quietly

The silence isn't so bad
'Til I look at my hands and feel sad
'Cause the spaces between my fingers
Are right where yours fit perfectly

More use of connected phrases the “space between my fingers is right where your fits perfectly” they fit perfectly idea love.

I'll find repose in new ways
Though I haven't slept in two days
'Cause cold nostalgia
Chills me to the bone

The coldness of longing chills right to the bone meaning that their longing for love fills them to the core of their being

But drenched in vanilla twilight
I'll sit on the front porch all night
Waist-deep in thought because
When I think of you I don't feel so alone

Sitting in the bright “vanilla” light of twilight at night deep “waist-deep” in thoughts and then thinking of them make the feeling of loneliness fade away.

I don't feel so alone, I don't feel so alone

As many times as I blink
I'll think of you tonight
I'll think of you tonight

When violet eyes get brighter
And heavy wings grow lighter
I'll taste the sky and feel alive again

The “violet” eyes of their lover gleam in happiness they song writer feels so happy that it seems as if they are flying and their “heavy wings” grow lighter meaning all the burdens are lifted

And I'll forget the world that I knew
But I swear I won't forget you
Oh, if my voice could reach
Back through the past
I'd whisper in your ear
Oh darling, I wish you were here

The want to go into the past and maybe make up for a wrong saying “I wish you were here” repeated from previously stated.
